

“Treasuring Jesus in Living and Dying”

Philippians 1:18b-26

Focus: How having Jesus as your greatest treasure affects your living and the prospect of your dying.

1. What treasuring Jesus means for your dying.

2. What treasuring Jesus mean for your living.

“Treasuring Jesus in Living and Dying”

Philippians 1:18b-26

Focus: How having Jesus as your greatest treasure affects your living and the prospect of your dying.

1. What treasuring Jesus means for your dying.

2. What treasuring Jesus mean for your living.

Discussion Questions

1. What is your perspective of death? What kind of perspective on death does God want you to have? In what ways, do you find this challenging? Share any struggles you may have or how God helped you overcome it.
2. Can you truthfully say at this present moment in your life, "For me, to die is gain?" Share.
3. If it is far better to be with Christ and death gets us there, is it wrong to seek medical treatment for serious illnesses? Why or why not?
4. How does supremely valuing Jesus affect one's perspective when it comes to continuing to live in this world? If you can honestly say, Jesus is my greatest treasure, how has this transformed your life and perspective on living? Discuss.

Discussion Questions

1. What is your perspective of death? What kind of perspective on death does God want you to have? In what ways, do you find this challenging? Share any struggles you may have or how God helped you overcome it.
2. Can you truthfully say at this present moment in your life, "For me, to die is gain?" Share.
3. If it is far better to be with Christ and death gets us there, is it wrong to seek medical treatment for serious illnesses? Why or why not?
4. How does supremely valuing Jesus affect one's perspective when it comes to continuing to live in this world? If you can honestly say, Jesus is my greatest treasure, how has this transformed your life and perspective on living? Discuss.